C. P. Carnival To Be Monday Night

The annual Halloween Carnival of the Canal Point PTA will get under way at 6 p. m. Monday with the opening of the PTA food booth which this year is offering complete suppers, featuring chili, hot dogs, pies, cakes and coffee. The food booth will be the only fundraising concession in this year's carnival.

The costume parade will take place in the school auditorium with the children marching across the stage in front of the judges and spectators. Twenty prizes will be awarded to children judged to be wearing outstanding costumes, one prize each for the most beautiful, the most comical, the most original and the costume most typical of Halloween in five age groups, preschool children, first and second graders, third and fourth graders, fifth and sixth graders, and seventh and eighth graders.

The parade, the high point of the carnival, will be under the direction of Mrs. Earl Maxson, with Paul Rardin to act as master of ceremonies.

Free refreshments will be served to all children attending the carnival, the school children to be served in their respective school rooms and the preschool-age children, in the auditorium.

The program of entertainment also includes the showing of motion pictures in the auditorium.

US Rep. Rogers To Address Clubs

U. S. Rep. Paul Rogers of West Palm Beach and Washington, D. C., will be guest speaker at a joint luncheon meeting of the Pahokee and Canal Point Lions Clubs and the Pahokee Rotary Club in the Community Hall at Canal Point Tuesday, Nov. 8, according to plans announced at the Tuesday luncheon meeting of the Pahokee Lions Club. Plans were also announced for a joint ladies' night program and meeting by the Okeechobee, Canal Point and Pahokee Clubs which make up Lions Zone One, Region Two.

Robert M. Norwood and Earl Gamble were received as new members with Frank Rozelle in charge of the ceremony inducting them into Lionsism.

President C. A. Canipe named Duncan Padgett in charge of the club's concession at the PTA Halloween Carnival which will feature hay rides.

Attend Funeral At Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. William Erickson have returned from Tuscaloosa, Ala., where her brother, Curtis Graham, 30, died in the University of Alabama hospital on Oct. 21 as the result of a cerebral hemorrhage. Funeral services were held in Easonville, Ala., Sunday, Oct. 23 and burial was made there.

The Beta Omicron Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Lois White with Miss Dorothy Chastain, president presiding voted a $10 donation to the Florida Farm Colony at Gainesville.

As a fund-raising project the group voted to sell tickets on a bride doll with a complete wardrobe of clothing.

Mrs. Jack Phillips, chairman, reported plans have been completed for the pony ride concession which the chapter is sponsoring at the PTA Halloween Carnival Oct. 31.

Mrs. W. K. Aldridge, program chairman, introduced Dr. T. W. Hahn of Belle Glade who spoke on "Health and Happiness."

County Discusses Police School

A police school for county law enforcement officers gained impetus this week as county commissioners sought information on how far they could go with county funds in establishing such a training unit. Action came as an aftermath of last week's Grand Jury report which called for establishment of facilities to train county law officers in crime detection.

The proposal was aimed at immediate establishment of some type of school where those already on the county payroll such as State Attorney Phil O'Connell, County Investigator John Hiatt and Sheriff John Kirk, could serve as instructors. The commission hoped that this would mean a police school at very little extra cost.

Approval was given a second motion by County Commissioner Lake Lytal who called for meeting of all county law enforcement agencies under the direction of O'Connell. The meeting, he said, would give the officers a chance to study the jury recommendations and voice their opinions on the proposals in it and that of the county school.

Clubs Will Have Joint Meeting

Canal Point Lions at their dinner meeting Monday night voted to change their regular meeting date Nov. 7, to Nov. 8 when they will meet jointly with the Pahokee Lions Club and the Pahokee Rotary Club at a luncheon to hear a talk by U. S. Rep. Paul Rogers.

It was announced the club has completed a sight conservation survey at the Canal Point School and a report on the survey will be given at next week's dinner meeting by Principal Carl Crawford. A film on "Lung Cancer" will be shown by Dr. Salvador Williams, at next week's meeting.

RECEIVE STRIPES

John Williams and Jimmy Schoepel, students at Marion Institute in Marion, Alabama, received their Corporal stripes Monday, Oct. 24. Both boys have been made Squad leaders, with the Squads consisting of ten men each.

Troop 28 Awarded Honor Banner

Pahokee Boy Scout Troop 28 clenched its position as top troop in the Glades District of the Gulf Stream Council by running up 379 points, based on attendance and advancements, to win the Court of Honor banner for the Glades District at the session of the District Court of Honor in Jameson Hall, Belle Glade, Tuesday night. This is the second consecutive time Troop 28 has won the coveted Court of Honor banner awarded every quarter to the troop in the district with the best all round record of achievements over a three-month period.

The remarkable thing about Troop 28 being the top troop in the Glades District at the present time is that a year ago it was completely inactive and had been that way for some time. At that time Louis Mims, as Cub Scout representative for the Pahokee PTA, attended a Glades District meeting of the Gulf Stream Council and learned that Scouting in Pahokee had reached such a low level of activity that the GSC was planning to drop the community from its membership unless something was done about it.

Mims, a former member of the City Council and father of a scout-age son, decided to do that necessary something. He got the Pahokee Lions Club to reactivate its sponsorship of Troop 28 and form the necessary working committees (continued on page 3)

City Council In Business Meet

A hearing on the proposed amendment to the city's new zoning ordinance changing the classification of Plots 70 and 71 bordering Rardin Avenue in the Negro section from R-3 residential to C-1 commercial was held by the Pahokee City Council Monday night. Thurmond W. Knight, a member of the County School Board, reported the board has a condemnation suit pending in the court for acquisition of this land for school use and since the court has granted the owner, Raymond O. Crosby, a 30-day delay in the suit, the board in turn wanted a 30-day delay on the council's vote on the amendment. The Council, however, unable to see how the change in the rezoning of the land could affect the board's suit, waived the rules and passed and adopted the ordinance of amendment after first and second readings.

In other business taken up the Council authorized the mayor and the city clerk to execute an agreement with the State Agricultural Marketing Board for the extension of a larger water main at the Pahokee State Farmers Market and (continued on page 8)

Bean Sales Off To Fair Start

Sale of beans got away to a fair start in the Lake Region on Tuesday of this week when Contenders brought $2.50 per hamper. Black valentines brought $2.75 and tendergreens sold for $2.70. Labor is being brought daily from the east coast of Florida to harvest the beans in this area. Heavy picking will start the first of next week and many farmers are of the opinion that there will be insufficient labor to harvest all the beans.

INCUMBENT TRUSTEES QUALIFY FOR REELECTION

A. R. Harrington, Lawrence W. Myers, Lake Worth and James Nemec of West Palm Beach, incumbent school trustees, were the only ones to qualify for the election to be held in special tax school district No. 1 on Nov. 8. Pahokee Carnival Is Monday Night

Lair Field will be the scene Monday night from 6:30 to 9:30 o'clock of the Pahokee PTA's gay and carefree annual Halloween Carnival which offers entertainment and fun for the "young in heart" regardless of the age.

In addition to the concessions and entertainment booths previously announced, the eighth grade group of students is sponsoring a fortune telling booth and candied apples and the ninth grade, a country store. The eleventh grade will conduct a "stop the music" contest. Many other varied forms of entertainment will include a cake walk, motion pictures, hay rides, fire truck rides and many kinds of interesting games and contests as well as an assortment of refreshments stands.

At three different times during the carnival a siren will blow and each time it blows everyone buying a ticket or the last one to have bought a ticket at any concession, if that person is in costume, will receive a ribbon and a cash prize of one dollar.

The deadline for the voting for the king and queen of the carnival will be at 6 p. m. Monday, one-half hour before the carnival starts, and the new king and queen will be given special recognition at a coronation ceremony at 8 p. m., with Ronnie Berry and Mary Arthur (continued on page 8)

South Bay Growers Begin Precooler

South Bay Growers, Inc., started construction this month on a modern precooling plant which when completed will be one of the bigger plants of its kind in the United States with a capacity of precooling 2,500 packages of vegetables an hour.

The new plant is being built at the north end of the company's packing house at a cost in excess of $100,000 and company officials hope to have it completed in time that it may be used for the precooling of at least part of the spring crops.

The company is investing in this modern precooler in order to speed up and improve its packing service to both growers and customers, according to Inman W. Weeks, general manager.

Revival To Close Sunday Night

A revival will come to a close Sunday night at the Methodist church in Pahokee where Dr. Claude Cotton of West Palm Beach has been doing the preaching. Unusually large crowds have been in attendance for Dr. Cotton's inspiring sermons.

The church announces "Youth for Christ Services" for Nov. 8 thru 11.

A hydro-glider that looks like a helicopter and is pulled by an outboard motor boat took to the air recently at Cypress Gardens in its first public demonstration.

Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

Installation of validation proceedings for $750,000 in county bonds was authorized Monday by County Commissioners through a special resolution.

Commissioners voted to have the county attorney take the necessary steps for processing the proceedings after a special hearing for objections turned up no opposition. The proceedings will eventually go to the State Supreme Court for approval.

The bond issue is the second of a series of three planned by the county.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Millar

Hello everybody! Hollywood's newest heart throb, Aldo Ray, credits a "polyp" for his spectacular screen rise. "I sound like a cross between the mating call of a bullfrog and an after-dinner speaker clearing his throat," boomed Aldo. "There's something about my gravel-pitched voice that makes people laugh the minute I open my mouth," Aldo ruefully observes. "And that goes for off the screen as well as on. People don't listen to what I say, but the way I say it. I can't get serious. As an example, I meet a friend and he asks me how I feel. I can say that I have miseries, that my back aches, that I have a touch of the flu, that my stocks are going down and my expenses are going up. So what happens? So the guy laughs. He puts his head back and roars. It stands to reason that he hasn't heard what I said, but just the way I said it." Aldo says that a polyp condition has been the prime factor in the success of many show greats. He cites Bing Crosby and Enrico Caruso, whose powerful voice baffled medical science for years. "I don't know the reason for my throat gymnastics," the actor confesses. "I may sound like I swallowed a chicken bone and never had it removed from my throat, but actually, I've never had any kind of accident to that area. I growled as a kid and I had more fights than take place at Madison Square Garden because of the ribbing I took from the other kids in my home town neighborhood. My folks thought I was going through a voice change and in due time I would speak in a so-called normal tone. However, that was over twenty years ago and although a lot of things have changed, my voice is still the same. See you at the movies—Mal

Weeki-Wachee Spring, famed Spring of the Mermaids on Florida's West Coast, was one of the points of origin of the presenters of "Wide, Wide World," NBC's spectacular TV show. Tampa's WFLA-TV supplied the cameras and technicians for the pick-up.

James H. Wilson and Mayor Lewis Friend. Attorney E. M. Bayness, speaking for the rental property owners group, asked the Council to delay voting on the resolution for 30 days to give both sides more time to study the issue.

With President Loren Meredith in the chair, Councilmen J. H. Wilkins, Jr., George H. Tucker, Jr., and Robert Simonson voted for the resolution and Mrs. Blanche Armstrong, against. After signing the resolution the Council turned it over to the Pahokee Housing Authority for forwarding to the PHA regional office in Atlanta, Ga., which hopes to have all housing reservations processed prior to July 31, 1956, according to A. R. Hanson, regional director.

Brahmas Defeat Devils One Point

Following their shocking 6-7 defeat by the Okeechobee Brahmas last Friday night, the Pahokee Blue Devils were hard at work in practice sessions on Larr Field this week re-learning the good old football fundamentals of blocking and tackling in preparation for their game with the Lake Worth Trojans at Lake Worth tonight.

Coach Webb Pell, who had warned his men in vain against overconfidence in the Okeechobee game, told the Blue Devil squad to forget about Lake Worth's record to date this season and keep in mind the Trojans are potentially a strong team and if they once start clicking—watch out! Lake Worth got into the winners' column last week for the first time in five starts by defeating Belle Glade, 15-13, and it is reported that now they have broken the ice they are determined to continue their winning way.

Pell reports his team at full strength for their try tonight for a comeback. He plans to start tonight Max Beverly at left end; Ronnie Berry, left tackle; Sam McKinstry, left guard; Homer Latham, center; Gene Pearce, right guard; Ronnie Hitchcock, right tackle; Chat Clark, right end; Buddy Parker, quarterback; Pat Turbeville, left half; Richard Weeks, right half and Weldon Cardin, fullback. The team will be accompanied to Lake Worth by Bandmaster Robert O. Lampi's marching PHS Band and a large group of loyal fans who still believe the 1955 Blue Devils are tops.

Just what did happen at Okeechobee Friday night, anyway? It was nothing more than an up-and-coming good team playing inspired football at the peak of its ability whipping a better team, confident to the point of complacency that it already had the game in the bag before the starting whistle blew. The one-point margin in the score became to the Brahmas as the game approached the end a bright symbol of restored honor as they tore furiously into the Blue Devils to avenge the 60-0 and the 46-7 shelling handed them by the Pahokee eleven in the last two encounters.

The Brahmas scored in the third period after driving from their own 20 to the Pahokee 30 where Quarterback Joe Osceola connected in a pass play with End Paul Raulerson at the Pahokee 10 and Raulerson ran on the rest of the way. Fullback Elton Lowe made the all-important extra point in a smash through the Blue Devil line.

The Blue Devils came roaring back on the return kickoff marching 50 yards to the Okeechobee 10 where Quarterback Buddy Parker went over on a keeper but the Brahmas line ganged up on Richard Weeks to keep him off the goal line in the attempt for the extra point.

Family Scattered?...

Bring them all together on ONE

Long Distance Call

Even though members of your family are living in different cities, they can all enjoy a reunion by Long Distance. It's fun, it's easy! Just tell your Long Distance operator you want to make a Conference Call. Give her the names, addresses—telephone numbers if you know them—and the hour you want to talk. Give a day's notice, if possible. She'll call each of them and arrange for all of you to talk together—just like a family reunion. The cost usually is even less than the total of individual calls.

BUSINESSMEN KNOW...

It's good business to use Long Distance conference call services. Many businesses are saving time and travel expenses with "telephone meetings" by Long Distance. You too may find Conference Calls convenient for business or family group calls.

in support of the troop. He then joined forces with Ed Carver, who had been doing good work as scoutmaster of Troop 23 but was discouraged and ready to quit because of lack of support by the sponsor, and the two as co-scoutmasters set about to build up Troop 28.

After several scouts of the disbanded Troop 23 transferred their membership to Troop 28 and a large group of tenderfoot scouts enrolled, the newly reorganized group became a beehive of activity. Mims donated the use of part of his welding shop building as a temporary scout hut until a better quarters could be obtained. Here, weekly meetings were held regularly and many weekend camping trips were enjoyed by the Scouts who made the trips at first in Mims' hot truck equipped with special sideboards and later in a bus acquired by the troop for such trips through donations by the sponsoring Lions and friends.

The boys joining Troop 28 soon caught the spirit of enthusiasm for Scouting shown by their scoutmasters and those who had come just to have a good time were quick to learn it is also fun to work for merit badges and advancements. Better and better Scouting records were made by the troop as the winter and spring seasons passed.

When summer came Troop 28 didn't fold up as many units do but kept right on, meeting regularly, going on weekend camping trips attending the Boy Scout summer camp at Lake Osborne where important work was done on advancements, going on guided tours of outstanding projects such as the giant pumping station at Twenty-mile Bend and the F&L's power plant at Riviera Beach. The troop has also been co-sponsor of Camporees and acted as hosts to Belle Glade and Canal Point Troops on weekend meetings and camping trips. Three troop Board of reviews were held during the summer and through cooperation with the City of Pahokee a new Scout Home was built in the city park next to the swimming pool.

As examples of how hard Troop 28 Scouts have worked during the past year one can look at the records of Freddy Hickerson and Carroll Watson. A year ago these two boys joined the troop as tenderfoot scouts. At the District Court of Honor Tuesday night it was the pleasure of Victor Green, advancements chairman, to hand them certificates of Star Scout rank. Ed Carver, who is serving as neighborhood commissioner as well as scoutmaster, also added to the pride of Troop 28 Tuesday night when he was awarded an Eagle Scout rank, the highest rank in Boy Scouting for which he had been working for some time.

Two members of Troop 28 were advanced to higher rank in first class: John Usher advanced to Life Scout and Dale Rosenberg to Star Scout. These boys had considerable training in Troop 23 under Ed Carver before transferring membership to Troop 28 a year ago.

The Pahokee High Baby Blue Devils downed the Stuart Juniors, 13-6, to win their second game of the season on Lair Field Tuesday night.

Pahokee scored early in the first quarter after moving, with the help of 50-yard end-around run by End Tripp Alderman, from their own 10 to the Stuart eight-yard line where Fullback Larry Elliott took a pitchout from Quarterback George McElhenry and called around right end for the TD. The Baby Blue Devils hit pay dirt again in the second quarter after they drove from their own 20 to the Stuart six-yard line where Fullback Elliott smashed through center for the rest of the distance and Halfback Alvy Early plunged for the extra point.

Stuart's baby Tigers first threatened in the third quarter when they drove to the Pahokee four-yard line before losing the ball on downs. Their lone touchdown came in the final period after an aerial attack carried them about 30 yards to the Pahokee 10 and their Fullback Bowering scored in an off-teakle play.

The Pahokee Juniors now have two wins and two losses with three more games to go. They still have Belle Glade, Okeechobee and a return game with Clewiston on their schedule.

Benjamin Franklin, whose birthday is January 17, was expert in handling money and his advice is as sound today as 200 years ago. All quotations here are from his booklet, "The Way To Wealth," published 1760.

Ben Franklin gives you some expert advice about Payroll Savings

"What though you have found no Treasure, nor has any rich Relation left you a legacy, Diligence is the Mother of Good Luck."

Have you ever wished you had $1,000, $5,000 or more—to buy a car, get a home, help you toward retirement? Today, it is actually easy to save such large sums! Because, today, you can have your saving done for you—with automatic diligence—through the Payroll Savings Plan.

"If you would have a faithful Servant, and one that you like, serve yourself."

Serving yourself means keeping some of the money you make each week and investing it, for yourself. Here's how: you just name a sum to your company's pay office—a few dollars or as much as you want. Each payday, that sum will be saved from your pay, before you get your check and invested for you in one of the world's finest investments, U. S. Series E Savings Bonds!

"Little Strokes fell great Oaks."

Because Savings Bonds earn good interest, they're soon worth more than the money you've invested in them. And how your savings mount up! Sign for as little as $5.00 a week and in 9 years, 8 months, you'll have $2,850 cash. In 19 years, 8 months, you'll have $6,872!

"One To-day is worth two To-morrows, and farther, Have you somewhat to do To-morrow, do it To-day."

For your own sake, don't put off joining the 8 million Americans who are making their dreams come true through Payroll Savings. Sign up for Payroll Savings today. Or, if you're self-employed, invest in Savings Bonds regularly where you bank. If you want your interest as current income, ask your banker about 3% Series H Bonds which pay interest semiannually by Treasury check.

"Remember what Poor Richard says:
Many a Little makes a Mickle."

Each week for 19 years and 8 months, save.....	$3.75	$7.50	$18.75

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

The way to overcome sin—its causes as well as its effects—through the understanding of God will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday. Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon "Everlasting Punishment" is the Golden Text from Ezekiel (18:23): "Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?"

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following: "Divine Love corrects and governs man... Every supposed pleasure in sin will furnish more than its equivalent of pain, until belief in material life and sin is destroyed" (6:3 only, 12-14).

Scriptural readings include the following (Psalms 37:27): "Depart from evil and do good; and dwell for ever more."

Pahokee Rotes Hear Jesse Reel

Jesse W. Reel, administrator of the Everglades Memorial Hospital, spoke on "Your Hospital and Your Community" at the Thursday luncheon meeting of the Pahokee Rotary Club last week.

He said the present Everglades Memorial Hospital, erected six years ago as a community project deserves the full confidence and support of the entire community. It compares favorably with other hospitals of its size in the State in the amount of modern equipment, rates, staff personnel and facilities designed specifically for the healing, comfort and welfare of the patients. An indication of the public confidence in the hospital was revealed during the past year in the increase of $27,000 in hospital's total income, according to the speaker.

During the past year the Everglades Memorial gave free service in charity amounting to 22.2 percent of its gross volume of service and put back into the community a total of $75,000 in salaries, insurance premiums and similar expenditures, indicating how important the hospital has become in the economy of the community and how well it is now carrying its share of the economic load. The administrator said.

Reel, whose duties as administrator terminate through resignation Dec. 1, took the occasion to publicly thank the medical staff, hospital personnel, hospital board, church, fraternal and civic club groups and the community in general for their cooperation in making the hospital a successful institution during the 15 months he has served as its administrator. He was introduced by B. Elliott, past president who presided in the absence of President Bascom Belcher.

Buddy Parker was the guest of Student Member Jim Seay, Nat Taylor, Clarence Henderson and John H. Duff were also guests.

County Discusses—

As a preliminary to the motion commissioners considered the possibility of sending trainees to the Miami police school which is a three months course. Commissioner Paul Rardin, reported on a recent conference with the Miami Chief of Police during which he learned the school tuition would be $150 per pupils for the course. He noted that the school there operates with a $40,000 budget annually and if the establishment of a local school would mean an increase in the county budget then the Grand Jury should make some sort of recommendation to increase the millage if necessary.

Rardin estimated it would take an additional quarter of a mill to operate one in Palm Beach County on that scale, and that the commission should not be expected to raise the millage without jury instructions.

This fee of $150 did not take into consideration the additional cost of transportation and housing students while they stay in Miami, Commissioner Roy Michael pointed out.

Commissioners agreed that the board has never turned down a request of the grand jury for the betterment of the county but cautioned that the move would need the full backing of all law enforcement agencies throughout the county.

Commissioner Kenneth Foster noted that the State itself just recently started in its program of training special crime investigators.
